ST. RITA CHURCH

Joyfully living and sharing the Gospel of Jesus, we welcome, worship, inspire, and serve with love.

2025/2026 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

*Together We Bring Hope
...and Hope does not disappoint*

From the Desk of Father Tim . . .

Together We Bring Hope

As Francis of Assisi grew in his faith but was not yet fully converted, he suffered from an extreme disgust of those who suffered from the disease of leprosy. Even seeing a leper at a distance would cause him to double over with nausea. He would go well out of his way to avoid the places where they lived.

One day, while riding home on his horse, there was suddenly a leper in his path. The leper stood there with his hand out and with pleading in his eyes, begging for alms. Francis, made stronger than himself, got down from his horse and not only gave the man alms, but also kissed the open sores on his hands.

Francis turned and got back on his horse and when he turned back to the path, the leper had vanished.

This is my favorite story of my favorite saint. I have always loved how the Grace of God transformed Francis' heart and made him "stronger than himself".

Another way that God helps us to be stronger than ourselves is when we come together as a faith community. Joyfully living the Gospel of Jesus, we can do so much more when we journey through life together. We do this as St. Rita Parish and as the Diocese of Rochester. When we realize our unity as a diocese, we are literally made stronger than ourselves. The work and love extend so much further and bear so much more fruit than we could ever hope to accomplish on our own.

Please support our parish and our diocese. Please give generously and early to the Catholic Ministries Appeal. For six straight years, we have finished before Christmas. The CMA is important and deserves our attention and energy. But we also have other important things that God is calling us to do. So, let's do the CMA well, complete our responsibility before Christmas, and move into the new year able to devote ourselves to other ministries.

And also, if at all possible, please increase your ongoing regular contributions to St. Rita. In your envelopes, or even better, online, support all the ministries that St. Rita is involved in. There is so much more happening and being accomplished than any of us could hope to do on our own. But it all does happen. It happens by the grace of God and because together we are made stronger than we are on our own.

Thank you for all that you do. I am so proud of the people of our parish.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Tim

Reflections on Readings for Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The Just One, Because Of His Faith, Shall Live"

Our readings today show us an aspect of faith that we rarely consider. It is a faith borne out of hope for salvation despite our current sufferings. It is realized through the charity of a servant heart.

Our first reading is from the Prophet Habakkuk (Hab 1:2-3, 2:2-4).

Habakkuk was writing during a time of tyranny and oppression in Judah. The evil and hardship of Habakkuk's lament in today's reading is not unlike our own today, as we struggle to understand God's ways in dealing with our ways. God's response to Habakkuk was one of patience and faith. The vision God refers to is the promise of Salvation. Even if delayed, it will surely come and it will not disappoint.

Our Epistle reading (2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14) is from one of St. Paul's letters from prison to his disciple Timothy, offering words of encouragement as Timothy continued with the pastoral work begun by Paul. St. Paul reminds us to "stir into flame" God's gift we received at Baptism and Confirmation— "the spirit of power and love and self control." It is not a spirit of cowardice; we should never feel ashamed of our faith or afraid to defend it. This letter to Timothy is often taken to heart by pastors as a guide to their ministry. We, too, in our baptismal role as priest, prophet, and king, can take it to heart.

In our Gospel reading (Luke 17:5-10), we hear an exchange between the apostles and Jesus that, at first reading, sounds odd. To their request to "increase our faith", Jesus told them even a small amount of faith can move mountains. Then He told them that they should be as servants, seeking no reward for their service to their master. What He may have been telling them was that they will find their faith in service to others. Jesus was the living example of this selfless servant. Our task is simply to do our duty, to do what God asks of us. That is our faith.

Jesus' instruction that we must be like servants, simply doing our duty, may make more sense when we consider what Jesus said in His own words, "The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give His life as a ransom for many." (Matthew 20:28).

He may be telling us that faith is realized through service to others and service is its own reward. He taught us this not only by His words but by His life and example. It is the life He calls us to live.

Our faith is our duty.

LINEN CLEANING: OCTOBER 5 PAM KUNZER

Over the Jubilee Year, we will explore the
themes of Hope,
Pilgrimage, and Jubilee, always ending with a question for you to consider over the week.

In today's Gospel, Jesus talks about having faith the size of a mustard seed. Through the Gospel reading, however, we also hear about hope. While faith may give us something today, hope assures us that we will have it in the future.

Pondering Point

What hopes of an increase in faith do you have? How can you grow your faith and your hope this fall?

October 4-5 Jubilee of Migrants

As a Church we are called to be welcoming to migrants and travelers seeking a home.

May we look with compassion on those who must move from their homeland, and may our parish and society help them find a home free from persecution and full of opportunity.

May almighty God bless and protect all migrants and those who welcome them. Amen.

St. Rita
Trivia

What long-time ministry began on January 9, 1951 with President: Loretta Wheeler, Vice President, Inez Ryan, Secretary, Ruth S. Yaeger and Treasurer, Mary Stumpf?

ANSWER: St. Rita Society

The St. Rita Society was a group of women who provided service to the parish, such as helping at funerals, planning prayer experiences, and fund raising for parish needs. They hosted social events, planned arts and craft projects, and invited guests speakers on topics of interest to the women of the parish. The Society continued to thrive for many, many years.

Would you be interested in coordinating and planning events like these? If so, please email Elizabeth.Kwiatkowski@dor.org

Congratulations and Welcome to the newest members of our parish family who were baptized this weekend:

Carson Thomas LaClair
Briella Jane Guarino-Hyde
Cayden Michael Guarino-Hyde

Please Remember in Prayer our parishioners and those connected with our parish who have recently died, especially:

Dora Arena Katie Sue Adkins
Phyllis Conn Robert Statt

Our Parish Health Ministry will be offering Free Blood Pressure Checks after all Masses NEXT WEEKEND, October 11 & 12 in Room 1.

Do You Like To Knit or Crochet?
Come and join us!

Tuesday, October 7th
10:30am - 12:00pm in Room 1

Prayer Shawls and Lap Blankets are given to anyone facing serious illness or hard times in their life. Blankets are blessed by Father Tim and a prayer card is included with our love and support.

We also give small white knitted blankets to each of our recently baptized children.

If you are able to share your time and talent, please join us here or make an item at home and leave it in the greeting area in Church.

If you know anyone that could use a prayer shawl, please contact Julie Cohn at: julie.cohn@dor.org 671-1100 ext. 103.

A Message from your Parish Health Ministry Team

Stay Healthy This Flu Season

Flu season occurs every year in the U.S. when Influenza circulates (along with other respiratory viruses), beginning in fall and peaking in the winter months. Annual flu vaccinations are recommended for everyone 6 months and older. Get your flu shot before flu begins circulating for the best protection.

In addition to receiving the flu vaccine, here are some ways to protect yourself and others from dangerous infectious illness:

- stay at home if you are sick to avoid infecting others
- cough or sneeze into your elbow or a tissue to avoid spreading germs onto your hands and nearby surfaces
- avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth
- wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds; use hand sanitizer if soap and water are not available
- clean and disinfect frequently used objects and surfaces in your home, office, or school
- follow current guidance on masking

Flu vaccinations are convenient and free!

Vaccinations are available at local pharmacies, clinics, doctors' offices, and grocery stores. For more information and guidance, contact your care provider and check out:
